Ms. Fraga: 6:30pm, Call to order: Special meeting of the CRC to discuss Superintendent Steve Cochrane's presentation to the CRC regarding work on racial literacy in Princeton's public schools.

Mr. Cochrane offered to present to the CRC and reached out to Ms. Fraga and Ms. Shamsi. Given Mr. Cochrane's influential position in the community a meeting with the full CRC, rather than with the Education and Outreach Committee alone, is warranted.

Individuals authorized to speak on behalf of the full CRC are Mr. Quinn and Ms. Fraga as Chair (and Mr. Parker as Vice Chair in her absence).

Purpose of today's meeting is to discuss the format of the May 30 Special Meeting and to review the role of the CRC. There was general discussion about the format.

Points discussed include:

- Time allotments for presentation and Q&As by Mr. Cochrane (45 minutes)
- Time allotment for CRC questions (10 minutes) and public questions/comments (20 minutes)
- Ms. Fraga will draft public announcement of the special meeting

Other Business:

Mr. Parker requests Guidelines, Policies and Procedures of the CRC and officer role descriptions be forwarded to the CRC.

May 23, 2017 – Regular CRC Meeting will take place as scheduled

May 30, 2017 – Special Meeting of the CRC with Mr. Cochrane. A public notice of the meeting will be published in the Town Topics.

A CRC Town Hall meeting for community dialogue is to be organized for a date in June.

The CRC will consider changing its regular CRC meeting time to 6:30pm 2nd Tuesday of the month.

Adjourn 8:15pm
